Welcome to Partridge Guide 7

What got us to where we are today will not get us around the next corner! The fly fishing market and the way we buy tackle today, even groceries, has changed forever.

Fishing styles and fly tying techniques have changed significantly, so as progressive hook makers to our book, we have kept up with modern thinking and fishing techniques.

In this book guide you will find that we have given even more of the classes an exciting make-over.

You will also be happy to learn that we are once again making hooks, and all of our Waddington and Intruder blanks in England.

As always we are trying to keep a balance between the classics and modern patterns. We have updated many of our core hook patterns making them more fish-able - so with this in mind the new PATROT Doubles and Singles are modern interpretations of our classic barbless. The M2 and N2 have been updated to increase the length of the point to ensure a better hook set. In 2014 we have introduced a range of barbless Salmon Hooks and we continue the trend of using a black nickel finish so that hooks are sticky sharp to land more fish.

Jinger Variant - Hook Type: SLD Tied By: Darryl Mooney.

The recent change to International Competition rules stipulate that only purpose made barbless hooks are to be fished in competitions. Partridge is not a newcomer to this style of hook, having pioneered arrow-points and dropped-points before such hooks became popular. Patriot Barbless hooks are designed to be dependable classics with robust points, for both competition and serious fisher folk alike. As this hook guide goes to press we will be changing the sizing on two oversized PATRIOT patterns, CZ and CZF - for many years these patterns have confused fly dressers as their sizing did not conform with the standard Redditch scale.

Bleeding Mouse. Hook Type: CS86X. Tied By: Pat Cohen

Partridge invented the purpose built predator (Pike) hook and has long worked with experts in the field to research and manufacture the best hooks for the job. There has been a tendency for fishermen to review the tide of a hook and to say that it is not suitable as it bears the wrong species on the lake. With this in mind in 2014 we have focused on new patterns that take us to the smaller predators the Walleye, Zander, Large-mouth bass, Small-mouth bass with a large gape suitable for poppers and busy patterns for hungry fish.

Fly fishing for saltwater species is becoming more and more popular and as rod construction has improved in recent years this has meant that there are now very few limits to what can be caught on the fly. With this in mind our 2014 range sees the start of a direction change for us to produce contemporary patterns that can meet the extremes that are demanded when fighting big fish. The new range features hooks for traditional patterns and the trend towards tube flies.
